Activity Name: ECOVideo

An Environmental Vlog Contest

Introduction

"Vlog", short for video blog, is a form of entertainment. It is similar to a blog but instead of having written content, they are expressed in video form. It aims to engage people with stories and opinions on certain topics while keeping them entertained. This activity will use that media to spread awareness and advocacies regarding our environment's protection and sustainability activities.

Objectives

1. To promote environmental awareness among our Youth
2. To enjoin participation towards conservation of natural resources
3. To enjoy and have a great time with their families in making videos
