FROM :
JUNE ARVIN C. GUDOY
Director IV, Public Affairs Service

SUBJECT : ISANG PANGARAP MUSIC VIDEO CONTEST

DATE : October 08, 2021

The Department of Education launched its official music video titled Isang Pangarap on the first day of the School Year 2021-2022, which was performed by the Manila Concert Choir. This music video shows the stories of the Department and its efforts to motivate the young learners to reach their dreams. This was produced through the collaborative efforts of the Office of the Undersecretary for Administration and the Public Affairs Service (PAS).

Inspired by this music video, PAS will conduct a music video contest titled Isang Pangarap to further contextualize the song in different school communities nationwide. This contest is an additional category of the 1st Information Leaders Awards (ILAW) for Regional and Division Information Officers to be held in November 2021. For detailed information about the contest, please see the attached guidelines.

For further clarifications and feedback, please contact the ILAW Secretariat at ilaw.secretariat@gmail.com.

Your active participation is highly appreciated.

“ISANG PANGARAP” MUSIC VIDEO INTERPRETATION CONTEST

GUIDELINES

I. BACKGROUND

As the communications arm of the Department, the Public Affairs Service (PAS) is implementing various social advocacy campaigns to further inform and empower learners, teachers, parents, and other education stakeholders.

This year, the PAS has launched the official music video of the Department of Education on the first day of School Year 2021-2022. Performed by the Manila Concert Choir and produced through the joint effort of the Office of the Undersecretary for Administration and PAS, “Isang Pangarap” music video tells the stories of the Department and its efforts to help every learner reach their dreams.

PAS will be conducting an “Isang Pangarap” Music Video Making Contest for field offices to further contextualize the song in various communities. This contest will be an additional category of the 1st Information Leaders Awards (ILAW) for Regional and Division Information Officers on November 2021.
